

Constitutional Review Committee
August 2019

Objective	Task	Outcome
Incorporation of traditional Tlingit and Tagish elements in to the constitution	Review process of the Family Act. Review traditional stories. Connect with other Tlingit and Tagish resources (Lance Twitchell, David Kadzick, Develin , Pat Moore, Daniel Tlen, Norm Adamson)	Identify stories to describe constitutional principles. Definitions and glossary of Tlingit/Tagish terms
Address children of the community and clan membership	Review the previous process approved by Elders Council.	Develop implementation plan.
The role of the clans within the C/TFN constitution specifically the appointment or election to C/TFN governing bodies	Review clan leadership reports/documents. Review process for clan appointment in current constitution. Look at provisions in TTC and TRT constitutions.	Understanding of relationship between EC and Clans. Identify which governance bodies should be clan based and criteria to determine. Determine which governance bodies require ancestry and how ancestry is defined.
Ensuring accountability and consequences for the elected Haa Sha du Hen (Kha Shade Heni)	Review the selection of KSH document.	Revisit the election vs appointment of KSH. Direction around byelections. Clarity on the process for KSH accountability.
Establishment of a judicial council	Review the previous reviews	Development of an implementation plan. Clearly defining the role/function of the JC.
The possibility of future joint decisions within the Dahk Kha Nation	Review the DKN documents. Review of delegation of jurisdiction and conflict of laws.	Identify the process for making joint law making.

Constitutional Review Committee
August 2019