News Release:

Carcross/Tagish First Nation announces newly elected Haa Shaa du Hen

Carcross/Tagish First Nation is honoured to announce election results for Haa Shaa du Hen and the candidates results for the C/TFN 2020 election that took place today.

Results: Lynda Dickson 109, Danny Cresswell 104, Robert Wally 38, Geraldine James 32, George Shepherd 19, Peggy Dubeau 16 and Jerry James 14.

We welcome Lynda Dickson as Haa Shaa du Hen for Carcross/Tagish First Nation and congratulate all candidates who devoted their time and energy running for this important position. Lynda Dickson will remain in office and continue her duties as the Haa Shaa Du Hen.

We would like to thank all of the candidates who ran in this election with one of the highest election voter turnouts with 336 votes cast. Haa Shaa du Hen will be traditionally welcomed during a Swearing in Ceremony on Friday afternoon, July 3rd 1:30pm at the gazebo near the main administration building in Carcross. Covid-19 guidelines for safe physical distancing will be respected. Lynda Dickson will serve as Haa Shaa du Hen for a period of four years, as per the constitution of the Carcross/Tagish First Nation.
