Our Ancestor's House

Meetings and Conferences | events.inquiry@ctfn.ca

Where people come together

As the most scenic meeting venue in the Yukon, host your guests for an unforgettable event at the Haa Shagóon Hídi—our Ancestor's House—in Carcross.

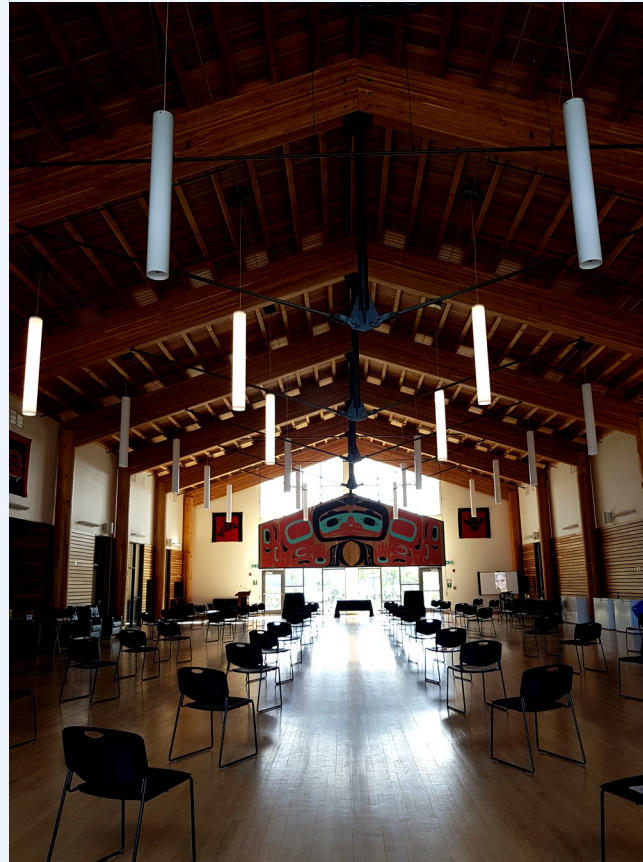

Our Ancestor's House is the perfect place to collaborate, educate, and inspire. Guests will be greeted by totems and local artwork before gathering in a professional meeting space. Our spaces are versatile and can accommodate groups of all sizes. In house catering and high quality AV means everything can be booked in one place.

Spaces

Haa Shagóon Hídi

Our Ancestor's House

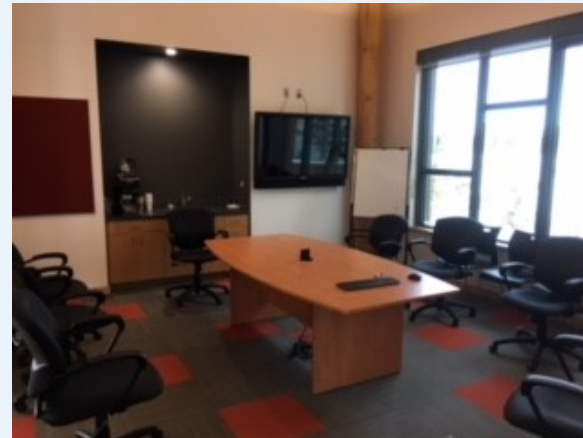

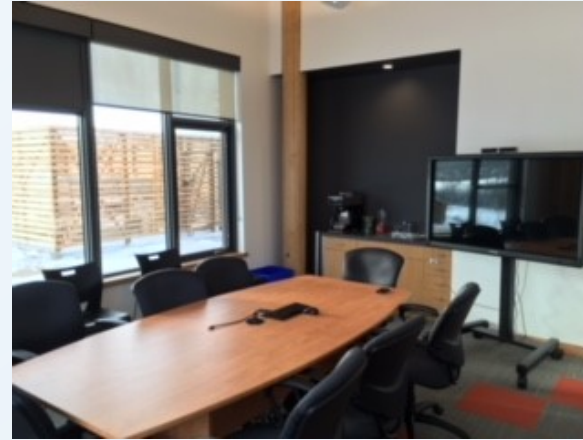

Great Hall

5989 square feet

Our most versatile and scenic setting, this is the perfect place for large gatherings.

From public forums, training sessions, marketplace halls for trade shows, art shows, and craft fairs, annual general meetings, private parties and banquets, educational sessions or anything needing a bit more space for your group—this room is perfect.

Ample spacing, natural light, breathtaking views, with easy access in and out of the building, this space encourages collaborations, friendly interactions, and group engagement while providing enough space to ensure everyone is comfortable.

Boardrooms

Boardroom 1— 263.5 square feet

Boardroom 2— 304 square feet

Boardroom 3— 263.5 square feet

Clan Room— 1260 square feet

With three state of the art boardrooms, all our configurations are flexible to host interactive meetings of various sizes. Smart TVs and conference phones in the room are capable of Zoom and video conferencing. Whiteboards and flip charts make brainstorming easy.

Privacy and comfort is assured in our clean rooms which are able to host 10 or less people.

For medium sized groups, our Clan Room offers sweeping views of Nares Lake, all the AV capabilities of our boardrooms, and has a fully equipped kitchen attached.

The Fire Pit

Gather round in this tranquil vista.

Start your meeting off with a smudge or finish with a hot drink in this scenic outdoor setting. Perfect for festivals, community events, and as a breakout space during rest times.

Please note the fire pit can be booked in addition to an indoor space.

Firewood must be purchased from our facility.

Inclusions + Additional Options

Included in the Main Hall room rental are tables with linens, chairs, with set up and take down services.

Our facility can provide microphones, podiums, and speakers for speeches and music. This as well as projectors and screens are available for a nominal charge.

For a small charge we can also have each of our boardrooms come equipped with conference phones and conference call capabilities, smart TVs, whiteboard and flip charts.

With a kitchen adjacent to the main hall, our fully loaded commercial kitchen makes it easy for catering to be done on site. We do have in-house catering, or can provide the kitchen as a rented space.

For an additional lounge area, you can add in the 263 square foot Elder's Lounge, a perfect breakout room for your event.
